

Gig at the Alexandra

Contributed by Alistair Gee
Saturday, 17 November 2007
Last Updated Tuesday, 20 November 2007

October 12th '07 we played at the Alexandra Pub in Worthing . It was a lively audience who enjoyed the show and kept asking for more.

We have always had trouble describing to people what we sound like. Someone in the audience said we sounded like a cross between Ian Dury and the Jam. What a great complement from someone we have never met before!

Guitarist singer/songwriter, Jon Wood played support.